1. From Mr. M. A. Guzmani
Director of Publicity T.T. Scheme.
Letter d 17th Augs. 43 forg a copy of his Tour Programme and stating that he wishes to see the Dewan to discuss questions connected with the TT scheme.

Dewans minute on the D.O. Chitty requesting his views and Deal with the letter. I should not be here on the 29th & tuesd. N.M. 22/8.

Mr. Guzmani arrives at Bangalore on the 29th Morn at 7.45 A.M (Sunday) by the Madras Mail and leaves for Hirisave on the 30th Morn. Since he has stated that he will visit the T.T. Centres, a copy of his tour programme will be sent to the Principal Engg College and Dy Directors (Ci Workshops) for information. Perhaps a reply may be sent to him to Madras c/o N.S.L.T that the Dewan will not be able to see him on the 29th. Since he will be out of Station and that the Heads of Training Centres have been asked to afford him the necessary facilities for visiting the Centres. If so for such desiring whether he need be treated as a State Guest.

Copies of the programme may be sent to the Principal, Engineering College & the Director of Industries & notes may be called for from them & the Chief Mechanical & Civil Engineer Railways regarding any points on which they need be discussed.

Mr. Ghosh may be written to that the Department will be glad to consider whether he is unable to meet him.

There seems to be no need to treat him as a Departmental Candidate. The Regional Employment Officer & the Employment Officer may look into his bona fides etc.
